ABOUT THIS WINERY

Masseria Borgo dei Trulli has purchased vineyards in the best viticultural areas. It then found an old Masseria surrounded by old vines, and decided to use this unique location to build its new State-of-the-Art winery where it can produce excellent wines from the proprietary vineyards. In this particular area of Puglia, you can find numerous ancient dry stone dwellings (huts) called Trulli. This is where Masseria Borgo dei Trulli gets its name.

TASTING NOTES

Pale yellow in colour, the wine displays attractive aromas of peach, lemon peel, mango and dry herbs. On the palate the saline minerality comes through and blends with a complex and pleasantly fresh acidity. Perfect as an aperitif on its own or excellent to accompany pasta dishes with shellfish or grilled white meats.

PRODUCTION NOTES

The Vermentino grapes are carefully selected from low-yielding vineyards in the Province of Lecce, in southern Puglia.

The vines are trained in the Spurred Cordon system. Plant density is around 5.500 plants per hectare with an average yield of 2 kg per plant. The plants are an average of 15 to 20 years old.

Careful manual harvest in late September.

After a delicate de-stemming, the grapes are not pressed, but left to macerate on their skins for approximately 12 hours at 4°C to increase extr...
