TASTING NOTES

On the nose, green apple and grapefruit aromas fuse before honeysuckle and mature oak character comes through. Elegant wood notes and toasted oak on the palate, with cigar box becoming green fruits like apple and gooseberry. The finish is long, with dry tea and tobacco leaf in balance with soft medicinal peatiness and wood smoke.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Loch Lomond 18 Year Old single malt scotch whisky has been matured in the finest oak barrels chosen by Tommy Wallace, the Master Cooper at the time.

Time and nature has been allowed to bring out the sweeter character of the wood with a subtle characteristic hint of peat and smoke ensuring a well-balanced finish.

To allow the whisky's natural characteristics to shine through, our 18 year old is free from caramel colouring and chill filtration.
