ABOUT THIS WINERY

Lehman ("Lemon") Hart's destiny in the world of rum began close to 50 years before his birth on 31 October 1768 in Cornwall, England. In 1720, his grandfather, Abraham Hart, a young enterprising merchant, began importing and trading in rums sourced from various islands in the Caribbean. 80 years later Lemon Hart would transform the family business by creating a unique blend of the finest rums.

TASTING NOTES

With its mahogany colour, this Rum is full of complex aromas of dry exotic fruits et Caribbean spices. On the nose, aromas of cinnamon, nutmeg, clove and ginger, followed by warm vanilla notes. Flavours of caramel, cocoa and butter are followed by a lengthy finish on aromas of Bourbon cask and tea.

PRODUCTION NOTES

This Rum comes from a single distillery in Guyana, and made according to British tradition. It is made from pure Demerara sugar cane molasses and distilled, blended and aged by Guyanese workers. It is bottled in Quebec.
